Undergraduate Research Travel Grant Application

Travel grant reimbursements are awarded on a competitive basis to students who attend and/or present at a research conference in psychology.

- This is a reimbursement grant; you will need to arrange and purchase your own travel up front prior to your trip.
- Maximum funding is $500.
- Please provide all information requested to be considered for funding. If you are awarded a grant, then you will also be responsible for submitting a short (1-page) summary of your experience at the conference and how it helped to further your personal and career goals.
- Deadlines: Submit application to Psychology Dept by Sept. 15 for travel during fall semester, and by Feb. 15 for travel during spring and summer semesters. If funds remain, then applications can be considered at other times (but still need to be submitted at least 30 days before travel).
